

gray matter 062605

what's the matter ?

is it a fossil, a cinder, a clinker, a crack in the code, a trap for the gaze, the gap between signifier and signified, a silhouette of nothing, a missing link, rhizomic tentacles, an art turd, a gray cloud with an aseptic lining, a shadow of a fictional ontology, a mistaken identity, a tactile text, a shaman's vision, a neurotic's obsession, a big deal, a small wonder, a ten foot pole, a junk worm, a junk sausage, a fuzzy memory, a fuzzy idea, an indistinct distinction, a dissimilated assimilation, an epistemology eraser, an invitation to use your imagination, an opportunity to reinterpret, a cluster of capriciousness, a benign intrusion, a disruption of common reality, evidence of desire, a surrogate sensation, or is it a question mark?
